

BOOKS FOR GIFTS.

NEW NOVELS

LEONARD MERRICK'S new book

To Tell You the Truth

The first new book from Leonard Merrick since "While Paris Laughed," and just as full of sparkle and of that indescribable something which sets in a class by himself the author of "Conrad in Quest of His Youth," "The Man Who Understood Women," "The Worldlings," etc. It made Barrie say that for him a new book by Merrick was the literary event of its season. $1.90

The Driver

By GARET GARRETT

HEYWOOD BROWN says that it is among the most absorbing books he has read recently. "Garrett has always had the amazing faculty of being able to make finance not only interesting but exciting." $2.00

The Tramping Methodist

By SHEILA KAYE-SMITH

Dr. CANBY says in The Literary Review: "I like to believe that I should have detected the genius in this story if it had come unheralded and unknown. . . . She has somehow, somewhere caught the lyrical element in religious conversion. . . . 'Green Apple Harvest' was a revelation of this; but in many respects this earlier story of a sporting clergyman's son turned Methodist, tramping for Christ and loving his love, each in an ecstasy, is more finely imagined and is carried through with more fervor. . . . 'The Tramping Methodist' deserves fame." This is a reprint of a first novel written by the author of "Joanna Godden," "Tamarisk Town," etc., when she was a girl of twenty—an amazing achievement. $2.00

The Red Knight

By BRETT YOUNG

John Masefield, Hugh Walpole, Archibald Marshall and other English critics are rating Brett Young as "the most gifted, most interesting and most beautiful mind among the younger men now writing. . . . He holds high place already, but will soon hold supremacy." His books show surprising range, from "The Crescent Moon" to "The Black Diamond." Each $2.00

Valley Waters

By CHARLES D. STEWART

A novel which is modern from cover to cover, but which because of the fine artistry of the man who wrote it, carries with it a curiously restful sense of satisfaction, and the sunny peace of the fruitful Ohio valleys through which the story runs. Its hero is a man without a past seeking to call back a memory and a home. $2.00

Nigger

By CLEMENT WOOD

The Boston Herald says: "Never with caricature but always with keen insight and understanding we see the southern Negro in both the swamp shacks that he calls home and in his city environments. . . . Mr. Wood has given us a stimulating novel, one of power and real worth." $2.00

Fairy Prince

By ELEANOR HALLOWELL ABBOTT, author of "Molly Make-Believe."

The Public Ledger, Philadelphia, says: "For ingenuity of plot and novelty of development, Eleanor Hallowell Abbott has few equals and no superiors among the women story writers of America, and she has made good use of her gifts in this book of delight." $2.00

The Unlit Lamp

By ELISABETH S. HOLDING

The book is full of atmosphere—it is a charming informal Staten Island house in which the story opens—at a dance. The rigid dignity of Brooklyn Heights in the nineties, the unhomelike air of a hotel apartment—they are poignantly real. It is just the book to send to your Brooklyn aunts. $2.00

OF INTERNATIONAL INTEREST

The Genoa Conference

By J. SAXON MILLS

"Mr. Mills's story is one of vast importance," the critics say, and one deserving place in the libraries of all who follow international events. $8.00

The Russian Turmoil

By GENERAL DENIKIN

Not merely interesting but to anyone interested in Russia of great historical value. $8.00

Industrial and Commercial South America

By ANNIE S. PECK

Invaluable to anyone having interest in South America. Every country is dealt with fully and in an interesting way. $5.00

Japan's Pacific Policy

By K. K. KAWAKAMI

Both interesting and important to any student of Japan as a world-power. $5.00

BOOKS OF TRAVEL

Beasts, Men and Gods

By FERDINAND OSSENDOWSKI

The New York Times describes it as:

"A book of astounding, breath-taking, enthralling adventure . . . a journey through the oldest and now probably the wildest of the regions of civilization, in which the traveler faced danger and death in a greater variety of ways, saw more astounding things, penetrated more mysteries than has any other man who has embarked upon perilous adventure these many days. . . . Aside from the marvels and the dangers of the journey . . . his report of and comment upon the native life and the unrest that is disturbing it give much authentic and desirable information of conditions that may yet be of the highest consequence to the rest of the world. . . . It is a fascinating book." Price, $3.00

Italy, Old and New

By ELIZABETH HAZELTON HAIGHT

The Boston Evening Transcript says:

"To readers given imagination by the gods—their gift of gifts—this chronicle of travel will so visualize the scenic and historic shrines visited that at the regretted close of the book will come a sense of personal experience so vivid that it will be difficult for them to realize that they have not themselves trodden these ancient ways which, radiating from Rome of the Immortals, lead into the heart of her history. . . . Yet none of the most 'statistical' could give a clearer idea of the social, political and economical condition of 'New Italy,' and of the strength of the influence upon it of 'Old Italy.' Illustrated from photographs by the author." Price, $2.50

ON GARDENS, ETC.

A Little Garden the Year 'Round

By GARDNER TEALL

For those who realize that garden making is half drudging and half dreaming. A book to be cherished. $2.50

The Story of a Cuckoo's Egg

By HILDA TERRAS

A true story of bird life illustrated with colored photographs. $2.50

Terriers

By DARLEY MATHESON

A boon to anyone who owns any kind of terrier. $3.00

FOR HOME FOLK

Cheating the Junk Pile

By ETHEL R. PEYSER

Your mother, your maiden aunt, your landlady—almost any woman will welcome this book on choosing and properly handling labor-saving devices so as to keep them from the junk-heap before their time. The humorous flare of its writing gives it a holiday flavor, in spite of its being so "useful" a gift. $2.50

The Sunny Side

By A. A. MILNE

Charming essays by the author of "The Dover Road," etc. Just right for a guest room. $2.00

FOR THE REFLECTIVE READER

The Caveman Within Us

By WILLIAM J. FIELDING

A penetrating study of personality. Mr. Fielding explains how a lack of working adjustment between the subconscious forces of human nature and the forces of surface and social life are the cause of all kinds of minor trouble which can be eliminated. $3.00

Our Unconscious Mind And How to Use It

By FREDERICK PIERCE

Clearly explains the work of Coue and Baudouin and offers a practical method for the application of autosuggestion to the problems of everyday life. $3.00

Politics

By FRANK EXLINE

An original investigation into the defects of all present forms of government and a proposal for a Political System which, through the Scientific Selection of representatives, will produce the best possible government in any given community. $2.00

Robinson Crusoe Social Engineer

By HENRY E. JACKSON

President of the National Community Board. Mr. Jackson demonstrates that the world is only Crusoe's island on a larger scale and that his discovery solves the labor problem and opens the path to industrial peace. $2.00

OF SPECIAL APPEAL

The Roadmender

By MICHAEL FAIRLESS

The 48th edition of this exquisite classic is illustrated with 26 mounted photographs of places mentioned in the text. Their soft grays blend into the restfulness of its spirit to an unusual degree. $6.00

The Life of the Spirit and the Life of To-day

By EVELYN UNDERHILL

In simple, untechnical language she shows the relation of the life of the spirit to the modern world-view of history, modern psychological inquiry, institutional religion, education, and to the personal and social life of to-day. $2.50

The Light Which Cannot Fail

By WINIFRED HOLT

Reveals some of the touches of romance with which the author has come into touch during her widely known work of lightening the lives of the blind, both in this country and in Europe. $3.50

Moonlight Schools

By CORA WILSON STEWART

The Boston Transcript: "A very inspiring book. It presents a clear statement of the conditions of illiteracy in this country . . . and shows at the same time the hope which should help these illiterates." $2.00

Pirandello: Three Plays

The most talked of playwright of to-day is the quiet Italian professor whose "Six Characters in Search of an Author" has been a notable success in London, and is being presented in New York, Paris, Berlin and Munich this winter. It with two other brilliant plays is in this book. $3.50

The Works of Li-Po

The best-known poet in China for a thousand years is introduced to English readers by Shigeyoshi Obata in a volume which will catch the eye at once of anyone who desires to make a gift of quaint exotic distinction. $3.50

All prices are net, postage extra. These books can be obtained through any bookstore, or if not, direct from

E. P. DUTTON & COMPANY, Publishers, 681 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

Send for their illustrated catalogues (free): "Books Suitable for Gifts" and "Books for Children."